Honor graduates named at ACHS

Renee Seay, this year's salutatorian.

Vivian's 2.93 GPA places her just behind the tri-valedictorians, but her extra-curricular activities are equal to theirs.

Vivian has participated in forensics and the Gifted and Talented Program. She has been secretary of the Science Club, vice president of the SCA and her freshman class, vice president and president of the Spanish Club, and president of her class during both her junior and senior years, as well as serving as drum major of the Raider Marching Band.

Vivian's accomplishments have won her recognition by the National Achievement Academy and Who's Who Among American High School Students, as well as acceptance to the 1983 Virginia Governor's School at Virginia Tech.

Vivian will attend the University of Virginia on a four-year Air Force ROTC Scholarship. She plans to major in Systems Engineering.

Timothy Lacy Almond is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Almond of Pamplin.

During his high school career Timmy has been active in the Future Farmers of America, and is presently serving as treasurer of the local chapter. He has also been a two-year member of the National Honor Society, in which he is now serving as treasurer.

In addition, he has participated on the Appomattox County High School Golf team.

Timothy plans to attend Virginia Polytechic Institute and State University and work towards a degree in agriculture.

Connie Marie Clifton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. Robert Clifton of Appomattox.

During her high school career, Connie has actively participated in the National Honor Society, Future Business Leaders of America, Future Homemakers of America and Latin Club. She was also selected as a member of the Who's Who Among America High School Students. Connie plans to attend Central Virginia Community College in the fall for one year before transferring to Virginia Tech to major in business administration.

Tambra Dawn Hamlet is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Hamlet of Appomattox.

Tambra has oeen an active member of the Gifted and Talented Program, the Appomattox County High School Chorale, and the National Honor Society, this year serving as reporter.

She was a four-year member of the varsity volleyball team, and served as manager of the varsity football and track teams. Tambra attended the 1983 Virginia Girl's State. She participated in the Miss Virginia National Teenager Pagent and Lil' Abner, the Senior Play, as well as various church activities.

Tambra will attend East Tennessee State University in the fall and pursue a career in athletic training.

Cecil Lee Jacobs is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Jacobs and the late Mrs.
